UN Depository Libraries System

The system was born in 1947 with the aim of sharing UN documents and publications with a network of libraries spread in the world. So far the Depository Library Programme consists of 351 depository libraries located in 135 countries and 1 territory.

Once documents were sent by mail overseas from New York and from Geneva, today the sharing is done mainly on-line

IFLA, International Federation of Library Associations and Institutions

The Association was founded in 1927 with the aim of representing the interests of libraries and information services and their users.

The International Advocacy Programme (2016-2018) aimed at sharing and spreading knowledge about Sustainable Development Goals among librarians and libraries' users

The 17 SDG (Sustainable Development Goals)

They have been settled on 21st October 2015 by the UN General Assembly in the Resolution A/RES/70/1 “Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development”.

The aim is to achieve a better and more sustainable world by the year 2030, working together both governments and citizens
