

MIMA: a data model to represent multi-disciplinary analysis on manuscripts. Use case on Pellegrino Prisciani's Historiae Ferrariae

<https://mima-data-model.github.io/mima-documentation/>

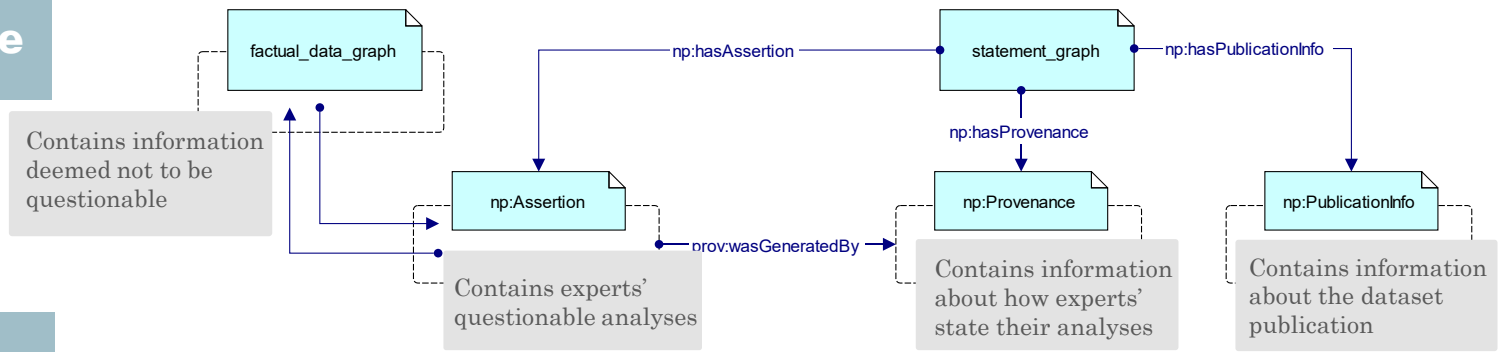

Valentina Pasqual,
Marilena Daquino,
Francesca Tomasi

valentina.pasqual2@unibo.it marilena.daquino2@unibo.it francesca.tomasi@unibo.it

Università di Bologna,
Digital Humanities
Advanced Research
Centre (DH.arc)

MIMA macro-structure

MIMA: a case study

Historiae Ferrariae, Vol. I,
ASMo, ms. 129, proem

Palaeographic statement

The monumentality of Historiae is conveyed by both 'capitale epigrafica' in the title and the illustration

Philologic statement

The illustration represents Prisciani giving Historiae manuscript to Ercole I d'Este

Iconographic statement

The proem illustration depicts the consignment of Historiae to the commissioner by the author. The motif can be found also in Orthopasca

